

Pacific Western Transportation Employee Receives Ontario Motor Coach Association Award of Excellence

Toronto, November 13, 2007: The Ontario Motor Coach Association once again recognized a Pacific Western employee for their outstanding service and leadership within the motor coach industry. Douglas Doyle was the 2007 recipient of the Driver Excellence Award by the industry's leading organization.

Douglas joined Pacific Western Transportation Ltd in 1993 as a full time operator. His experience as a coach operator goes back to 1987 when he was employed at Mackenzie Bus in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia.

Being a model employee, Douglas has held a superior attendance record and has always been prompt and reliable. His dedication is evident through the care he displays for his customers. He maintains his equipment, always ensuring he has the proper tools to obtain the best results.

Pacific Western is proud of the exemplary example Douglas Doyle has made and is thrilled that his dedication has been recognized by the Ontario Motor Coach Association.
